

A PROGRAM FOR ASPIRING PHYSICIANS IN RURAL AND UNDERSERVED COMMUNITIES

Program Dates:
September 2026 - August 2027

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

AMP is a yearlong pre-med pathway program offering guidance and support for future medical school applicants committed to practicing in rural and underserved communities.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS:

- 66-hour MCAT Preparation Course
- Advising sessions and application preparation workshops
- Wicked Problems in Medicine Course
- Mentoring and networking
- Job Shadowing
- Community Health Immersion
- Community Health Internship in North Central Wisconsin in Summer 2027

PREFERRED APPLICANTS:

- Plan to apply to medical school within the next 1-2 years
- Come from rural and/or environmentally or economically disadvantaged backgrounds
- Are interested in primary care
- Aspire to practice medicine in rural and underserved communities of North Central Wisconsin
- Have faced barriers on their journey to medicine

QUESTIONS? CONTACT:

ASHLEY NICHOLS, PROGRAM COORDINATOR
ANICHOLS@NAHEC-WI.ORG

Apply by
March 20, 2026

NORTH CENTRAL
Wisconsin Area Health Education Center

University of Wisconsin
Stevens Point